

Take back our territory

At the foot of Mont'Albo in Siniscola in Sardinia, in the past made some extractions of rock destined at building.

In our opinion the quarry may be transformed in a natural park with tree and grass.

To make it accessible to people of all ages, you could make a space for the little ones with a slide and many other games that a children's park has.

Photo of the quarry obtained from Google Map

Authors: Filippo Carzedda; Patrizio Lapia; Daniele Lutz; Maria Benedetta Secchi